

States with 100% Smokefree Laws in Workplaces, Restaurants and Bars
As of June 3, 2007

State	Workplace Law	Restaurant Law	Bar Law	Exemptions
Arizona	5/1/07	5/1/07	5/1/07 includes cigar bars	Outdoor patios, provided that smoke does not enter into areas where smoking is prohibited. Smoking when associated with American Indian religious ceremony is permitted.
Arkansas	7/31/06	7/31/06	7/31/06	State law prohibits smoking in workplaces, except those with two or fewer employees that are not open to the public. Smoking is prohibited in restaurants and bars, except those that prohibit persons under twenty-one from entering the premises. Designated smoking areas are permitted on the gaming floors of franchises of the Arkansas Racing Commission.
California	1/1/95	1/1/95	1/1/98 includes cigar bars	Employers may establish separately ventilated break rooms for smoking. Employers with five or fewer employees may allow smoking in work areas if all employees working in that area consent. Warehouses of a specific size and other specified workplaces are exempt.
Colorado	7/1/06	7/1/06	7/1/06	State law prohibits smoking in workplaces, except those with three or fewer employees that are not open to the public. Employers in facilities that are otherwise exempt from law must provide smokefree work areas for employees who request them. Smoking is prohibited in all restaurants, bars, and public places. Cigar-tobacco bars are exempt. Smoking may also be permitted in separately ventilated restaurants and bars at international airport terminals under the terms of a concession.
Connecticut	10/1/03	10/1/03	4/1/04	State law prohibits smoking in workplaces with five or more employees, except in separately ventilated smoking rooms. Workplaces with fewer than five employees must provide nonsmoking work areas for employees who request them. Smoking is prohibited in all restaurants and bars, except in smoking rooms provided by employers for their employees and cigar bars. Smoking is prohibited in specified public places.
Delaware	11/27/02	11/27/02	11/27/02 includes cigar bars	State law prohibits smoking in all workplaces, including restaurants and bars, and in public places.
District of Columbia	4/3/06	1/1/07	1/1/07	Cigar bars that generate 10% or more of revenue from onsite sale of tobacco products, excluding sales from vending machines, and rental of onsite humidors; outdoor areas of restaurants and bars.
Florida	7/1/03	7/1/03		Bars are exempt.
Georgia	7/1/05	7/1/05	7/1/05	State law prohibits smoking in most workplaces, except in separately ventilated smoking areas. Private workplaces are open to the public by appointment only are exempt, except that smoking is prohibited in public reception areas in such workplaces. Smoking is prohibited in restaurants and bars, except those that deny access to and do not employ minors. Smoking is also permitted in private separately ventilated rooms in restaurants and bars. Private clubs are exempt.
Hawaii	11/16/06	11/16/06	11/16/06 includes cigar bars

State	Workplace Law	Restaurant Law	Bar Law	Exemptions
Idaho		7/1/04		Small business owners, employing five or fewer employees, may establish separately enclosed break rooms for smoking as long as employees, other than custodial or maintenance employees are not required to work there.
Illinois	1/1/2008	1/1/2008	1/1/2008	Smokefree ban includes casinos.
Louisiana	1/1/07	1/1/07		Free standing bars are exempt and smoking is permitted in designated smoking areas in facilities in which gaming operations are authorized by law, including facilities licensed for video draw poker or slot machines.
Maine	1/1/86	1/1/04	1/1/04 includes cigar bars	State law provides that all employers must have a written policy on smoking that aims to protect the employer and employees from the detrimental effects of smoking by others; the policy must prohibit smoking except in designated smoking areas. A private club is exempt if it has a smoking policy that is mutually agreed on by the employer and all employees and if the club ensures that only the employer, employees, members, and their guests are admitted, and demonstrates by a secret ballot that a majority of the members have voted at least once every three years to allow smoking.
Maryland	2/1/2008	2/1/2008	2/1/2008	Only tobacco shops are exempted. Smokefree ban includes private clubs (VFWs).
Massachusetts	7/5/04	7/5/04	7/5/04	State law prohibits smoking in all workplaces, restaurants, and bars, with limited exceptions for membership associations and smoking bars, defined as bars in which 51% or more of the revenue is generated by the sale of tobacco products. Smoking is prohibited in specified public places, although all public places with one or more employees are covered under the workplace provisions.
Minnesota		10/1/2007	10/1/2007	Outdoor smoking is permitted unless local ordinances restrict it. In addition to smokefree restaurants and bars, all bowling alleys, private clubs, and public transportation will be smokefree.
Montana	10/1/05	10/1/05	10/1/09 includes cigar bars	Bars have a lengthy phase-in period.
Nevada	12/8/06	12/8/06		Freestanding bars and areas within casinos where minors are prohibited are exempt.
New Jersey	4/15/06	4/15/06	4/15/06	Limited exceptions for cigar bars and cigar lounges that generate 15% or more of their total annual gross income from the sale of tobacco products and the rental of humidors, provided they are separately ventilated. The gaming areas of casinos and casino simulcasting facilities are exempt.
New Mexico	6/15/07	6/15/07	6/15/07	State law prohibits smoking in all workplaces, except those with fewer than two employees that are no open to the public. Employers in facilities that are otherwise exempt from law must provide smokefree areas for employees who request them. Gaming facilities, casinos, bingo parlors, and cigar bars are exempt.
New York	7/24/03	7/24/03	7/24/03	Limited exceptions for membership associations, cigar bars, and restaurants and bars when being used exclusively for functions for the primary purpose of promoting and sampling tobacco products.

State	Workplace Law	Restaurant Law	Bar Law	Exemptions
North Dakota	8/1/05	8/1/05		Separately enclosed bar areas and public places are exempt. Freestanding bars; areas that are not commonly accessible to the public and are part of owner-operated businesses with no other employees; and separately enclosed, adult-only areas in truckstops are exempt.
Ohio	12/7/06	12/7/06	12/7/06 includes cigar bars
Oklahoma	9/1/03	9/1/03	3/1/06	State law generally prohibits smoking in indoor workplaces, with exceptions for private offices, separately ventilated smoking rooms, and owner-occupied workplaces not open to the public. As of March 1, 2006, restaurants must either be totally nonsmoking or have separately ventilated smoking rooms. Freestanding bars are exempt.
Oregon	1/1/09	1/1/09	1/1/09	Smoking prohibited in casinos also.
Rhode Island	3/1/05	3/1/05	5/4/05	Limited exceptions for smoking bars defined as bars in which more than 50% of the revenue is generated by the sale of tobacco products, and for separately ventilated smoking gaming areas in pari-mutual facilities. Employees in pari-mutual facilities must be given the right to opt out of working in a smoking area.
South Dakota	7/1/02	7/1/02		State law prohibits smoking in enclosed workplaces, and in restaurants, except for those licensed to sell alcohol.
Utah	5/1/06	1/1/95	1/1/09 includes cigar bars	State law prohibits smoking in all workplaces (except for owner-operated businesses with no employees and not open to public). Bars will have a lengthy phased-in period. Some private clubs are exempt until 1/1/09.
Vermont	7/1/88	9/1/05	9/1/05 includes cigar bars	Employers must have a written smoking policy, which must prohibit smoking throughout the workplace or restrict it to designated enclosed areas. An employer may establish a smoking policy that permits smoking in designated enclosed smoking areas under specified conditions.
Washington	12/8/05	12/8/05	12/8/05 includes cigar bars
Puerto Rico	Enacted a 100% smokefree workplace, restaurant, and bar law, which is scheduled to go in effect March 2, 2007. Law includes cigar bars.

Compiled from Americans for Non-Smokers Rights sources.